

Shaanu Ram D.B.

18M18C8087.

College information system.

The main objective of our product is to main information about students, employees and other activities like attendance, students use for payment & salary payment etc. The information is stored for Admin - These people play important roles in modification of subjects and many other.

Teachers - These are the people who create classes for their respective departments & updates.

Students - They are people who will look for their respective results within the webpage.

