

Sharan Ram D.B.

IBM18CS097.

online shopping system.

These are the online software when customer used to buy products of their wish, developed or admin has account to add products to database.

This system has 3 people.

Admin - These are people who adds products to database so that user can purchase. & verify details & credentials.

Customer - These are users who used to buy products. There are many modes of payment where people can pay. They can track order and make cancellation with that.

⊗ webuser - These are user who just use website to view products, compare, check etc.

Sharan Ram D.B.