

Sharan Ram D.B.

13m18CS097

Online Shopping System-

These are online softwares when customer used to buy products of their choice, Developer or admin has account to add products to the database. This makes to order items.

Admin- People who add products to the database so that user can purchase.

Customer- user who buy products.

Admins - These are users who use to manage products, etc.