Sharan Ram D.B.
1BM18CS097.

Hostel management System

System for Hostels to manage their daily activities which include the management of employees, students staff, worries. Records enter pannel details, administors, process, reports, events and other reports.

This System will be used by 4 people.

Admin - The administrator is one who monitors all users and user transactions. Admin has to maintain data of every student profile in database.

Student - Every student who have room in hostel have a database & a student account to access his data.

Database Manager - Database manager is a user who have the administrator permission to update the entire database. In the project the database manager has permission to update the student.